Code of Consent and Empowering Agreement

We require all volunteers to sign an agreement acknowledging that they are aware of what we believe and who we are. While volunteering with WAR, Int'l, you become part of WAR, Int'l and whatever you say will reflect on our ability to accomplish the work that we believe God would have us do.

If I am accepted by WAR, Int'l to go overseas as a volunteer, I agree to uphold and not engender conflict with the standards, policies and work of WAR, Int'l.

- I have read and agree to abide by the Statement of Faith of WAR, Int'l while on this ministry trip. In instances in which I may disagree, I promise not to discuss or debate any differences with the nationals, knowing that this would cause confusion in the hearts and minds of a people who may have only recently come out of the kingdom of darkness and still trying to learn more about the redemptive message.
- I will not discuss politics with the nationals, knowing that politics is a sensitive issue. I realize that I am a guest in their country and any political comments may reflect on WAR, Int'l's ability to continue to work effectively after I am gone.
- I will not interfere with WAR, Int'l's management of the project and/or personnel.
- I will not make promises to or create agreements with the nationals about projects that I or they might like to do outside those being managed by WAR, Int'l. (Culturally, a discussion often may be seen as a promise by the locals.)
- I will not make any promises of assistance or give gifts to the nationals. (If such a gift or assistance is being considered, it must first be discussed with WAR, Int'l)
- I agree to abstain from alcohol, illegal drug use, smoking and coarse or suggestive language. I will seek to avoid discussing sensitive topics with nationals that might be misunderstood or engender unrest.
- I will abide by the values of respect, love and concern for others, integrity, truthfulness accountability and hard work.
- While on this ministry trip, I will keep WAR, Int'l informed at all times as to my whereabouts and will not go off on my own unless I have informed the WAR, Int'l representative as to where I am going. This is for my own safety and security.
